Library Moving to Canal Depot

The library will soon have a new interim home at the Canal Depot Building on Main Street as it joins Main Street Coffeeworks and Diamond Seafood in the historic stone building in the heart of downtown. The new arrangement will allow the library to continue services to the public in a convenient and charming location with the possibility of extending hours and initiating new programs. The current library will need to be closed for a period of time to pack all the books, shelving and equipment. Dates and times of the closure and the reopening will be advertised.

The Board of Directors would like to extend its sincere appreciation to the PNC Bank Corporation for its eleven years of hospitality and support in assisting the library to become a part of the greater White Haven community.

New Logo Unveiled

We are very pleased and proud to unveil the new logo representing our future library and visitors' center. Domenica Solarek, who successfully combined the railroad history of the Engine House with its future use as an information center, created the artwork. Andy Karlick of AK Graphics assisted by transforming the artwork into a computer format for reproduction purposes. The new logo will be used on all library letterhead and marketing materials as well as fundraising items.

Thanks to both Domenica and Andy for all their hard work and creativity!

Printer and Volunteers Needed

Have a new printer still in the box? Many computer systems now come with a new printer as a "freebie" that customers don't really need. If that person might be you, the library could really use a new printer for use by the desk volunteers. If you can help us out, please call John Toft at 443-7130.

New volunteers are always needed! As we move into larger quarters, we would like to expand our hours and services to more closely coincide with the hours of the Main Street Coffeeworks. All volunteers are trained and partnered up with experienced volunteers. You'll meet great people and be helping with an exciting project for the community.

Interested? Give Jill Bauersfeld a call at (570) 443-7023 for more details.
